The other day we wrote about how the Las Brisas Acapulco resort has a Magic Box. Get your mind out of the gutter, the box is simply referring to a room service box which enables servers to drop off the food without disturbing guests.

Now we notice that Las Brisas has another cool amenity on site--a pink and white striped Jeep. OMG. So cute, right? And wait, it's not just one Jeep on site. They have a whole phalanx of these pretty-in-pink jeeps. We love. love. love.

If you know of any other cool or fugly hotel cars, send 'em our way!
